THIS WEEK
at the Morris

We will be closed Sunday, September 29, due to road closures for Iron Man.

Save These Dates!

Thursday 10/3

4:00-5:00 p.m.

CREATE WITH ME! SUGAR SKULL PALETTE PARTY. Paint a ceramic sugar skull piggy bank, inspired by the traditions of el Día de los Muertos. It's a lively and creative way to honor Mexican culture while having fun with the whole family! Members, free; nonmembers, $5. For kids, toddler to tween. Register in advancece by button at bottom or call 706-828-3867.

Thursday 10/10

6:00 p.m.

ART NOW ARTIST TALK: MICAH CASH. Artist Micah Cash will discuss his photographs from the book Waffle House Vistas, now in an expanded second edition, published by the Bitter Southerner. His photographs of the vistas through Waffle House windows take us on a journey through the South's changing landscape from the ever-constant maroon booths of Waffle House. A reception for artists Micah Cash and Kathryn Keller follows. FREE. RSVP to 706-828-3867.

Friday 10/11

Noon

ART AT LUNCH: KATHRYN KELLER. Artist Kathryn Keller will discuss her work featured in the current exhibition A Deep Harmony Thrumming in the Mixture: Recent Work by Kathryn Keller with Kevin Grogan, director of the Morris Museum of Art. Members, $20; nonmembers, $25; lecture only, $15. Catered lunch included. Place paid reservations by October 9 by button at bottom or call 706-828-3867.

Sunday 10/27

2:00-4:00 p.m.

ARTRAGEOUS! FAMILY SUNDAY: BOO BASH. Join us for our annual spooktacular Halloween extravaganza: Boo Bash! Enjoy a frightfully fun day with free activities like temporary tattoos, decorating mini pumpkins, coloring treat bags, trick-or-treating in the galleries, and a selfie photo corner! FREE. Sponsored by Good Earth Produce & Garden Center, Murphy Auto Group, Phoenix Printing + Security Federal Bank.