NATURALIST SYMPOSIUM

Keynote Speaker:
Jenni Harris
with White Oak Pastures

a zero-waste, radically traditional regenerative farm

Jenni Harris is the Director of Marketing at White Oak Pastures, a zero-waste, radically traditional regenerative farm. White Oak Pastures believes "farming must not only be sustainable, it has to be regenerative" and have shifted their practices away from pesticides, herbicides, hormones, and antibiotics. Instead they focused on building a farm that practices humane animal husbandry and environmental sustainability.
