

THIS WEEK

at the Morris

Watercolor Wonders

Sunday 6/1

2:00–4:00 p.m.

ARTRAGEOUS! FAMILY SUNDAY: WATERCOLOR WONDERS. After taking in the Georgia Watercolor Society exhibition, enjoy a plein-air painting session as you create a watercolor wonder with the Savannah River as your backdrop. FREE.

Save These Dates!

Thursday 6/5

4:00–5:00 p.m.

CREATE WITH ME! MAKE A MINI MORRIS. Become a museum curator for a day! Using shoeboxes and reproductions of artworks from our collection, you'll design and decorate your own museum gallery. Members, FREE; nonmembers, $5. For kids, toddler to tween. Advance registration required. Click here to register.

Friday 6/6

Noon.

FILMS ON FRIDAY: THE MAN WHO KNEW TOO MUCH (1934). Starring Leslie Banks, Edna Best, and Peter Lorre, this Hitchcock thriller involves a couple vacationing in Switzerland, whose daughter is kidnapped by spies plotting an assassination. FREE.

Sunday 6/22

2:00 p.m.

MUSIC AT THE MORRIS: BRADEN RYMER. Hear this accomplished pianist and vocalist perform jazz and classical standards. FREE. Funded by the Cleon W. Mauldin Foundation.