COOL OFF THIS SUMMER AT THE MORRIS MUSEUM OF ART!

Summer has officially arrived. Come cool off at the Morris—explore the galleries, view the special exhibitions, and shop the museum store. FREE every Sunday.

Thursday 6/26

6:00–7:30 p.m.

SPECIAL EVENT: STEFFEN THOMAS: ROCK & CHISEL, A FILM BY JESSE STEPHEN FREEMAN. Written, directed, and produced by an Emmy award–nominated filmmaker, this documentary follows the life, work, and legacy of artist Steffen Thomas. Film, 6:00 p.m.; reception with Jesse Stephen Freeman, 7:00 p.m. FREE.

Thursday 7/3

4:00–5:00 p.m.

CREATE WITH ME! DANCING DOLLS. With bold patterns and bursts of color, the figures in Jonathan Green's paintings dance right off the canvas. View the exhibition of Green's work, then use paint and collage techniques to create a Silver Slipper Club dance party with paper dolls. Members, FREE; nonmembers, $5. For kids, toddler to tween. Advance registration required – Click Here!

Sunday 7/6

2:00–4:00 p.m.

ARTRAGEOUS! FAMILY SUNDAY: COLORFUL CONGREGATIONS. Jonathan Green is a master at filling a canvas with people, patterns, and—most of all—color! Use the wax-resist technique to re-create his painting The Congregation. FREE.

Thursday 7/17

6:00 p.m.

ART NOW ARTIST TALK: JUSTIN GUY, MASTER POTTER AT OLD EDGEFIELD POTTERY. Justin Guy, a craftsman of Old Edgefield–style vessels and a recipient of the 2022 South Carolina Arts Commission's Folk Heritage Award, will discuss the history of the technique and the significance of potters Abner Landrum, David Drake, and Stephen Ferrell. Afterwards, Guy will identify and authenticate your Old Edgefield pottery (limit of two pieces per person). A reception follows. FREE.
