Are You Ready For A Historic Adventure?

With the America 250th Celebration, it's the perfect time to host a week-long, half-day summer adventure for rising 1st grade through current 6th grade that focuses on those early days of America and Augusta. On July 13-17 from 9:30am-12pm there will be games, crafts, colonial food prep, story time and adventures in the Museum and at the historic Ezekiel Harris House. Each day we will learn about a specific time in Augusta's history from the indigenous tribes and colonial times to the Revolutionary War and the time when Washington visited Augusta. History, fun, adventure, learning, curiosity and so much more for the children of the CSRA!

Registration for Red, White & Ready For Adventure is OPEN for everyone! Enroll soon, there are only 25 spots. Click the link below for all the details and to register your child today. And if you have questions call the Museum at 706-722-8454.

Making fresh butter

Field Day games at the Ezekiel Harris House

About the Augusta Museum of History

Augusta Museum of History, the only Museum in the CSRA accredited by the American Alliance of Museums, was established in 1937 for the purpose of preserving and sharing the material history of Augusta and the region. From a 10,000 year-old projectile point to a 1914 locomotive, to James Brown memorabilia the collections chronicle a rich and fascinating past. The museum is located at 560 Reynolds Street in downtown Augusta. Please call \(706\) 722-8454 for more information or visit www.augustamuseum.org
