

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Start: June 12, 2026

End: June 25, 2026

Media Contact:

Nancy J. Glaser

Augusta Museum of History

(706) 722-8454

amh@augustamuseum.org

Augusta Museum of History Presents:

Curious Kids

Augusta History For Today's Kids!

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER!

The Augusta Museum of History presents, Curious Kids: Petersburg Boat Edition. Kids ages 3-12 are welcome to join in the fun of story time, a boat-themed craft, a game, and learn about how Petersburg Boats were a big part of Augusta's history with the Savannah River and the Augusta Canal.

There are two sessions to choose from, Thursday, June 25th and Friday, June 26th from 10-11a.m. The same program will be presented at both sessions. Cost is just $5.00 per child and $5.00 per adult. Children spots are limited to 25 per session, so sign up today!

*Please note: Adults must stay with their children for the entirety of the event. Also, please be mindful that this event can become somewhat loud and active, depending on the number of attendees.

What's Included:

- *Brief lesson about the history of Petersburg Boats in Augusta
- *Boat Craft supplies and instruction
- *Story time in the Museum
- *Themed scavenger hunt
- *Themed game
- *Admissions into the Museum

Upcoming Curious Kids

Thursday & Friday June 25 & 26, 10-11am – The Petersburg Boat

Thursday & Friday July 30 & 31, 10-11am – The Yellow Trolley

Thursday & Friday August 27 & 28, 10-11am – Augusta's Education

Thursday & Friday September 24 & 25, 10-11am – Games of the Past

Thursday & Friday October 29 & 30, 10-11am – The Last Carriage Ride

About Augusta Museum of History and the 1797 Ezekiel Harris House

Augusta Museum of History, the only Museum in the CSRA accredited by the American Alliance of Museums, was established in 1937 for the purpose of preserving and sharing the material history of Augusta and the region. From a 10,000 year-old projectile point to a 1914 locomotive, to James Brown memorabilia the collections chronicle a rich and fascinating past. The museum is located at 560 Reynolds Street in downtown Augusta. Please call \(706\) 722-8454 for more information or visit www.augustamuseum.org

Hours: Thursday - Saturday, 10:00 am - 5:00 pm; Sunday 1:00 pm - 5:00 pm; Closed Monday-Wednesday

Admission: Adult: $7 * Senior: $6 * Child (6-18): $5 * Child (6 & under): Free

Group tours (10 and up) available all week; must book in advance. Register here: https://bit.ly/AMH_FieldTripReg

The 1797 Ezekiel Harris House, said to be "the finest eighteenth-century house surviving in Georgia", is located at 1822 Broad Street and is an excellent example of early Federal architecture. Fully restored in 1964 and listed in the National Register of Historic Places, the Ezekiel Harris House is a reminder of the days when tobacco was the primary cash crop of Georgia. For more information, call \(706\) 722-8454 or visit www.augustamuseum.org.

Hours: Guided tours by appointment Tuesday - Friday, with the last tour beginning at 4:00 pm; Open every other Saturday 10:00 am - 5:00 pm, with the last tour beginning at 4:00 pm; Closed Sunday & Monday. To schedule tours call \(706\) 722-8454.

Admission: Adult: $7 * Senior: $6 * Child (6-18): $5 * Child (5 & under): Free

© Copyright 2021 Augusta Museum of History. All rights reserved.

Augusta Museum of History | 560 Reynolds Street | 706-722-8454 | www.augustamuseum.org

Connect with the AMH

