

THIS WEEK

at the Morris

Thursday, September 3

4:00–5:00 p.m. Create with Me! Funny Face Jugs. There are some funny faces in the folk art gallery. Come learn about the art form of ceramic face jugs, then make your own! FREE for members; $5 for nonmembers. For toddlers to tweens. Advance registration required. Register online or call 706-828-3867.

Friday, September 4

Noon. Films on Friday: Paper Moon (1973). Adapted from Joe David Brown's novel Addie Pray, this comedy stars the real-life father-daughter pairing of Ryan and Tatum O'Neal (the youngest winner of a competitive Academy Award) as con artists who attempt to swindle their way across rural Kansas and Missouri. FREE.

Save The Date!

Thursday, September 10

6:00 p.m. America at 250: Bettis C. Rainsford, Sr., Discusses Elijah Clarke.

This local historian, author, businessman, and preservationist will discuss Revolutionary War hero Elijah Clarke's place in regional and American history. Followed by a reception in the galleries. FREE.

Sunday, September 13

2:00–4:00 p.m. Artrageous! Family Sunday: The LEGO Derby! The Morris LEGO Derby returns for a second year. Build and rebuild a LEGO car to race down our track and learn how weight distribution affects speed. Discover something new with each redesign! FREE.

Thursday, September 17

6:00 p.m. Presentation and Reception for Morris Eminent Scholar Melissa Thorne. Join us in welcoming artist Melissa Thorne to the Augusta community. She will talk about her artwork, process, and plans during her tenure as eminent scholar. Reception will follow. FREE.

Our Company | Contact Us | FAQs | Privacy Policy