The Augusta Museum of History and its Board of Trustees are pleased to announce Natalie Smith as Interim Executive Director.

Natalie brings a decade of museum experience into this role, most recently serving as AMH's Deputy Director for over 3 years, and prior to that was the Museum's Registrar from 2019-2023. In this interim role, she will oversee our daily operations, guide ongoing programs, and ensure a smooth transition as the Museum searches for a permanent director. Thank you all for your continued support during this time.

About the Augusta Museum of History

Augusta Museum of History, the only Museum in the CSRA accredited by the American Alliance of Museums, was established in 1937 for the purpose of preserving and sharing the material history of Augusta and the region. From a 10,000 year-old projectile point to a 1914 locomotive, to James Brown memorabilia the collections chronicle a rich and fascinating past. The museum is located at 560 Reynolds Street in downtown Augusta. Please call (706) 722-8454 for more information or visit www.augustamuseum.org.
