

THIS WEEK

at the Morris

John Miller, Onion Rings, circa 2014. Cast glass, painted metal.
Morris Museum of Art, Augusta, Georgia. Gift of Eugene Fleischer.

Now Open!

A Southern Perspective: America 250. The works in this exhibition were selected from the museum's holdings to honor the 250th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence of the United States of America. More than fifty photographs, paintings, and sculptures examine and celebrate American life through the lens of a wide array of Southern artists. READ MORE >>

Thursday, October 1

4:00 p.m. Create with Me! Boogeyman Box. Make your own terrifying treasure chest! Transform a simple shoe box into a monster that holds toys and treats. FREE for members; $5 for nonmembers. For toddlers to tweens. Advance registration required.

Friday, October 2

Noon. Films on Friday: The Grapes of Wrath (1940). Adapted from John Steinbeck's 1939 Pulitzer Prize-winning novel, this film tells the story of the Joad family as they make their way from Oklahoma to California in pursuit of opportunity as migrant farm workers. FREE.

Save These Dates!

Friday, October 9

Noon. Art at Lunch: The Art of Collecting: Tom Wells. Join us for a catered lunch as local art collector Tom Wells talks about four decades of pursuing southern folk art. Members, $20; nonmembers, $35; lecture only, $15. Secure reservations by October 6.

Wednesday, October 14–Thursday, October 15

Wednesday, 2:00–5:00 p.m.; Thursday, 10:00 a.m.–5:00 p.m. The Sand Hills Garden Club Presents: Southern Exposure. A member of the Garden Club of America, the Sand Hills Garden Club presents elaborate floral displays, inspired by works of art from the museum's collection, by designers from across the nation. FREE.

Sunday, October 18

2:00 p.m. Music at the Morris: Bella and Randy, Irish Music. Classically educated violinist Bella Issakova and multi-instrumentalist Randy Clepper will play traditional Irish music. FREE. Funded by the Cleon W. Mauldin Foundation.

Sunday, October 25

2:00 – 4:00 p.m. Artrageous! Family Sunday: Boo Bash! It's a frightfully good time for the whole family! Put on a costume and join us for our annual spooktacular event with free activities like coloring treat bags, trick-or-treating in the galleries, decorating pumpkins, and fairy-tale story time. Cap the day off with a family portrait at our photo backdrop. FREE.

Our Company | Contact Us | FAQs | Privacy Policy